Coaching Application

This application for coaching in the C.O.W.H.A. must be filled out completely. It includes a Coaching Questionnaire and CPIC form. Applicants are requested to complete both forms and present the form entitled "Head Coaching Application" and the CPIC Form 100 to the C.O.W.H.A. Coaching Selection Committee. If you are successful in your application, your CPIC application form will be given to the C.O.W.H.A. Police Liaison for scrutiny of the OHF and C.O.W.H.A. eligibility criteria.

The eligibility criteria for C.O.W.H.A. Head Coaches is:

- Must have a valid coach's card or proof of past coaching experience in one of the recognized associations. A photocopy of the card must accompany the coach's application.
- Has held a head coaching position on a representative team for more than three years or has been a Wolves' Assistant Coach for three years.
- Is willing to obtain an Intermediate Coaching Certificate by September 15th of the year of acceptance. If after September 15th, the successful candidate has not completed the intermediate coaching course, the coach must show proof of enrolment and completion of the course to the V.P. of Hockey.
- Acceptable C.P.I.C.
- In a Coach's tenure in the C.O.W.H.A. Coaches Manual, Article 5., it states "A two year lapse in birth year is mandatory after completion of a three year tenure under the guidelines. A coach may not apply or receive an interview for that birth year after completion of their term".
- Cannot be elected to, hold, or be appointed to the following C.O.W.H.A. executive positions:
 - OMHA Contact
 - Ice Scheduler
 - V.P. Business & Administration
 - V.P. Hockey Operations
 - President
- Applicants may be appointed/elected representatives of the Central Ontario Wolves Hockey Association Governing Committee.

Your completed application will have the following, a photocopy of your coach's card, a completed Form 100, and a completed CPIC application. Incomplete coaching applications will not receive an interview.
